Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious

Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay
Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay

They think it’s not a re-al word, but I know what is right
You’re crazy, it’s a made-up word from Mary Poppins flight
You think you’re gonna prove us wrong by quoting movie scenes
It won’t be in the spelling bee, you don’t know what it means!

Oh, supercalifragilisticexpialidocious
Even though the sound of it is something quite atrocious
If you say it loud enough you’ll always sound precocious
Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!
Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay
Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay

I’ll look it up, I’ll find it out, I know it’s on the shelf
But while you’re there you might consider books on mental health
What do you really think it is, this nutty sounding thing
It means when kids are hanging out, they just can’t help but sing!

Oh, supercalifragilisticexpialidocious
Even though the sound of it is something quite atrocious
If you say it loud enough you’ll always sound precocious
Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!
Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay
Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay
(key change)
Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay
Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay

New words like Google and Hashtag that come from common use
The dictionary adds each year – I guess we’ll call a truce
So let’s go to the Li-brar-y, where we can take a look
It’s great to have a place to go that’s sure to have the book!
Oh, Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious
Even though the sound of it is something quite atrocious
If you say it loud enough you always sound precocious
Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious

Um diddle diddle diddle um diddle ay
Um diddle diddle diddle  ay

Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious
Even though the sound of it is something quite atrocious
If you say it loud enough you’ll always sound precocious
Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!
